

New Electric Heating Devices

You can heat the baby's bottle in one minute by simply turning on the electric current into one of the new ingenious water heaters which we have now in stock.

No dirty odor, danger of fire and no waste heat.

The heater is a neat little pan that you can place beside the bed, on a table or bureau, anywhere. Very simple and useful.

A PAYING INSTITUTION

The life-saving service cost the government $1,822,455 last year, but it saved all but twenty-nine persons of 5220 whose lives were involved in marine disaster. Property to the value of over $15,000,000 was involved and more than $12,000,000 was saved.

MANY CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS

Very few of the churches held special Christmas services yesterday.

The Catholic Church held the usual Christmas service, but there was no program issued.

Saint Andrew's
Services at St. Andrew's Cathedral were held during the day. The church was most beautifully decorated for the occasion under the direction of Mrs.
E. D. Tenney, assisted by Mrs. Charles W. Booth and Miss Schaefer. The chief service was in Hawaiian. The music at the 11 o'clock service was from a setting by Tours in F. Mr.
Bode and the choir were assisted by Mrs. Bruce McV. Mackall. In addition to the services the Japanese of the Makiki church, at the corner of Pensacola and Kinau, gave a rather elaborate entertainment, the children taking part in dialogues and songs, followed by a prayer by the pastor, Rev.
T. Okamura.

Salvation Army
The Salvation Army held their Christmas tree services in the hall corner of King street and Nuuanu avenue at 5 o'clock. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

The Army's brass band was in force and holiday airs filled all with good cheer.

The three Sunday schools were united for the Christmas exercises, and at the opening standing room was at a premium. A tall Christmas tree adorned one end of the hall and from its well-laden branches every child in the hall received a present. Every little girl in attendance received a beautiful doll to gladden her heart.

Mr. Charles Abrahamson officiated as Santa Claus, and the impersonation was as nearly perfect as could be.

Following is the program:

A CHRISTMAS WISH

(Oahu Young People's Greetings)

Our wish for a Merry Christmas, a Happy and Joyous New Year;

Our wish that those may love you, whom you consider dear,

Our wish that your days to come may be days of joy sublime;

Our wish that they may be welcome in the name of Father Time.

Our wish that the dear Lord lead you under His guiding Star;

Our wish that Heaven may be yours when He leaves the Gates ajar.

Selected.

There was a special service in the penitentiary yesterday morning at 10 a. m. It was led by the Salvation Army, while the Army brass band furnished music for the occasion.

Palama Chapel

Christmas tree service was held at Palama Chapel at 7:30 p. m. yesterday. Candy and presents were given to every child. The Loving Cup, offered as a prize to the class making the best record for attendance during the year was won by a class of seven boys.

The chapel was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The season of the Pacific Coast

Baseball League will commence on March 10. Pretty soon Barney Joy and En Sue will be counting the days before the practice season commences.

Another Dance

Think now about spending the year-end pleasantly. The last dance at HALEIWA was such a success that the management has decided to repeat it on the 29th of this month. He has arranged with the Kaai Orchestra to play at a concert and dance on that date and to have music all day Sunday. On that day there will be a golf and tennis tournament at which, it is expected, a large crowd will be present. You may write the manager, ST. CLAIR BIDGOOD, for accommodations.
